

Arcola Theatre

The Arcola Theatre is a studio theatre housed in a converted paint factory in Hackney.

The theatre's ambition is to create and present high-quality theatre with a social and political relevance to its multicultural local community as well as a wider audience.

Client:
Arcola Theatre

Location:
London

Project Value:
£2m

Programme:
2012 – 2014

Cragg Duties:
Project Managers
Construction Manager
Design Consultant
Quantity Surveyor
CDM Coordinator

Funding:
Arts Council England

The theatre features two studios seating up to 240 persons and two rehearsal rooms. There is also a café and bar. The theatre runs a number of community arts activities including youth drama and a writers' programme.

