

Didcot Arts Centre

A new build 5 screen multi-plex cinema including foyer space and new town square development.

Client:
South Oxfordshire District Council

Project location:
Oxfordshire

Value:
£4.99m

Programme:
2003-2006

Architects:
Neil McLaughlin Architects

CMS Duties:
Project Managers

Procurement:
Design & Build

Funding:
South Oxfordshire District Council

A central part of the Didcot redevelopment requires the delivery of a cinema venue in accordance with the operations requirements whilst also complying with planning regulations and site constraints. The building design was developed with full consultation with all parties.

- Multi phased project including town square and cinema development
- Council funded

