

The Holburne Museum of Art

Client: The
Holburne Museum

Location: Bath

Project Value: £11m

Programme:
2005 – 2012

Architects:
Eric Parry Architects

CMS Duties:
Project Management
Employers Agent &
Quantity Surveyor

Procurement:
2 Stage Design &
Build

Funding:
Heritage Lottery
Fund, Sponsorship

A new build 3 storey contemporary museum providing new gallery spaces education and community facilities. The restoration and refurbishment of the existing grade 1 listed museum within heritage gardens.

The resolution of the critical planning and listed building requirements proved to be the most challenging aspect of this project.

- Museum within a World Heritage site
- Full renovation and restoration of the existing building
- Construction of a new glass link to the new contemporary extension.

