

Tara Arts Theatre

The vision is to convert Tara Studio into an outstanding, 100-seat, producing theatre with rehearsal and workshop facilities. This landmark theatre will be built using sustainable systems and materials to create a space which houses the creative meeting of cultures.

An important outcome is for a distinct East-West flavour to the much-loved and more comfortable home of the Tara Arts.

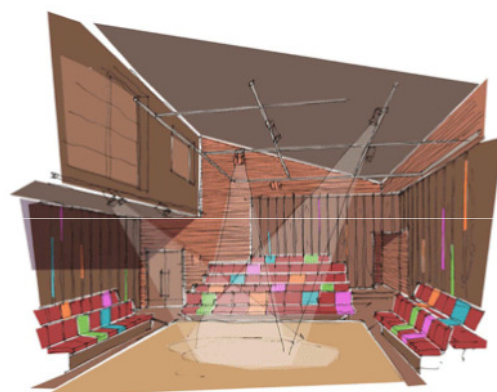

Client:
Tara Arts Theatre

Location: London

Project Value:
£1,250,000

Programme:
2012 - 2015

CMS Duties:
Project Managers
Employers Agent
Quantity Surveyors

- Renovation of an existing building
- Creation of new gallery spaces
- Creation of rehearsal rooms
- Environmentally efficient services

